

sales and raising all the money for their trip. I might add that this is their tenth straight year in a row for winning this National History Day contest and they have won eleven years, but the ten years have been consecutive. The Saint Isidore's winners focus on communication in history, the key to understanding. I'd like to just give the names. Clinton Hamling, Ryan Greiner, Kerl Brichacek, Nick Cumberland, Kari Kunneman and Sarah Pillen gave a group performance for, "The Magical Box"; Gregg Dohmen, Stephanie Kruse, Lisa Schneider, Ryan Schnieders and Emily Wick, "Her Precious Communicable Past"; Laura Mlinar, who won first place in the individual media presentation for her performance of, "Understanding Communication in Silence." Tom Rogers did, "Hoofs Heard Around the World"; Erica Moser, Jeff Eikmeier, Sara Rief, Jerod Trouba and John Tworek-Hofstetter, "Misinterpretations: Tragedies of Communications." I'd just ask the body to advance the resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Robak. There are no other lights on the resolution. Question is the adoption of LR 185. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of 185.

SENATOR HALL: The resolution is adopted. Next item, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 249 offered by Senator Baack is found on page 2364 of the Journal.

SENATOR HALL: Speaker Baack on LR 249.

SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Mr. Chairman and colleagues, this is a resolution in honor of the Kimball golf team. This is the first year that they are competing in Class C and at the end of regulation they were tied for the championship and then in the first play-off hole the Kimball golf team won the state championship. I urge you to adopt the resolution.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Mr. Clerk, an amendment on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Withem would move to amend.
